Q U O T A B L E Q U O T E S

“During Rosh Hashanah, Jewish people ask God for forgiveness for the things we’ve done wrong during the past year. We also remind ourselves not to repeat these mistakes in the coming year. In this way, Rosh Hashanah is an opportunity to improve ourselves. It’s a holiday that helps us to become better people ...Tori Avey

FROM PAST POST COMANDER, STEVE SEIDEN

Good Day:

The Veterans Day Parade has been called off.

We, as the Kline Veterans Fund, will not be participating in a Veterans Week Poppy Drive.

Sun City Summerlin follows our Governors mandate with the number of people at an event and social distilling. Therefore, we will not be having our October Picnic here.

Mort Friedlander will advise us about placing Flags on Veterans graves at Bunkers Cemetery before Veterans Day.

Sorry for all the good news other than staying healthy

LAUGHLINES

WHAT'S A MEZUZAH?

(you'll find them in a Jewish home placed on the right-hand side of each door)

A man who has finally made it in business treats himself to a new Lamborghini! After buying it, he feels guilty so he goes to the Orthodox Rabbi and asks for a Mezzuzah for the Lamborghini.

"You want a Mezzuzah for what?" the Rabbi asks.

"It's a Lamborghini,"

"What's a Lamborghini?" asks the Rabbi.

"A sports car."

"What? That's blasphemy!" the Rabbi shouts. "You want a Mezzuzah for a sports car? Go to the conservatives!"

Well, the man is disappointed, but goes to the conservative Rabbi and asks for a Mezzuzah.

"You want a Mezzuzah for what?" the Rabbi asks.

"For my Lamborghini", the man replies.

"What's a Lamborghini?" asks the Rabbi.

"A car, a sports car."

"What kind of sports car?" asks the Rabbi.

"Italian."

"What? That is blasphemy!" the Rabbi shouts.

You want a Mezzuzah for a Goyishe car? Go to the Reform!"

Again, the man feels guilty and disappointed, but goes to the Reform Rabbi.

"Rabbi," he asks, "I'd like a mezuzah for my Lamborghini."

"You have a Lamborghini?" asks the Rabbi.

"You know what it is?" says the man.

"Of course! It's a fantastic Italian sports car. What's a Mezzuzah?"
