WELCOME TO OUR NEW OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Red.

The color red represents hardiness and valor, as well as courage and readiness to sacrifice. It is also sometimes said to represent the blood shed by those who have fought to protect our freedom and our country.

Blue.

The color blue signifies justice for all, as well as vigilance and perseverance. A reminder that we must remain watchful and strong.

White.

The color white stands for purity and innocence. Pure, because we are independent from other countries and hold true to our ideals.

FROM YOUR COMMANDER, MARVIN BOTWINIK

Jewish War Veterans Post 64

To all our members of JWV Post 64

First of all, I want to thank you (and your spouse) for your service. Whether you served 6 months or 25 years, you gave up a part of your civilian life to serve honorably in the United States Military. And while many of us served during a period when people were not eager to thank us for our service, we now see a much greater respect for our active military and our veterans.

As you are probably aware, fewer and fewer veterans are joining the JWV. This is due to many factors including less citizens joining the military. Also, as we are aging, we are losing more and more members and not gaining new ones. I want to encourage you and your spouse to continue to support the JWV by coming to our meetings and also referring any of your friends for membership. We want to hear from our members about their experiences and share ours with you. Sadly, we lost a wonderful member of our post 64 family with the loss of our dear member Helen Groner. May she rest in peace.

If you haven't been to a meeting in a while, please join us on Sunday, August 28 at the Humana Center at 10 A.M. on Charleston Blvd and Rampart. A light breakfast will be served.

Also, the survival of any organization depends on financial support. If you have not paid your current dues, we would appreciate getting up to date. Your dues provide many member benefits. Please remit dues to JWV Post 64 and mail to Ricki Greenspon, 2821 Glen Aulin St. Las Vegas, NV 89108. If you have any questions as to dues amounts owed please contact her at rickela@gmail.com.

Wishing a speedy recovery to Bea and Micki.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting.

Thanks,

Marvin Botwinik, Commander JWV Post 64
