Commanders letter

Hello fellow JWV Post 64 members.

I hope everyone is having a great March and enjoying the good weather. We have a lot going on in the next few months. We will be electing officers in March to serve for the next year. Judy Bootzin has been nominated for Commander and Jerry Bootzin for first Vice Commander. If you have anyone you wish to nominate please let me know. The formal installation is in April and will be held at the Humana office. Also, since the first day of Passover falls on the 23rd of April, the regular scheduled meeting will be moved to April 30th. Please make a note on your calendars.

In May, we have a busy month. On the 19th of May there will be a potluck lunch at the park in Sun City. Please bring a dish for the event. On Saturday, May 25th, we will be placing flags at the gravestones of veterans at the Bunker Memorial Cemetery. Please let Mort know if you will be able to help with this Mitzvah. The Poppy drive will be on the 22nd of May through the 27th of May except for Saturday the 25th. We are fortunate to have two sites this year (thanks to Mort), the Smiths in Henderson on Flamingo and the Sun City Smiths at Rampart and Lake Mead. Steve is captain of the Sun City location and Mort is the captain of the Henderson location. Please sign up for a shift or two as we have a lot of shifts to cover.

Put the Department Convention on your calendar for June 23 for lunch. It will be at the Wild Horse Country Club in Henderson. The cost is 25 dollars per person; however, 15 dollars will be subsidized by the department, so the net cost is 10 dollars. Spouses are also invited.

So now the not so good news. We will need to look for a new location for our meetings. Humana will no longer be able to host our meetings probably after June. If anyone can find a viable location for us to meet (other than a member's home) please let us know.

Thanks,
Marvin Botwinik,
Commander JWV Post 64

SOCIAL CHAIRMAN SHEILA EPSTEIN'S REPORT

I'm back from all my trips overseas. The time I was in Israel during the War was eventful and stressful moving from one place to another. But during those days I was able to go to the marriage of my Grandson Savvas to Haruth the most delightful granddaughter anyone would wish for.

The New Year 2024 has begun and we on your Board have been hard at work to keep making our Post the most active and friendly Post in the WEST.

SOOOOOOOOO here are some dates to put on your calendar with more to come soon.

More dates to save

- 5/19/24 Annual Potluck 11:00 AM at Desert Vista Park in Sun City Summerlin
- 5/22/24 Poppies Wednesday 5/22 to Friday 5/24 and Sunday 5/26 and Monday 5/27
Call Mort Friedlander at 702 306 3659 to pick your dates and time to volunteer.
- 5/25/24 Place Flags at Bunker Memorial Cemetery on Las Vegas Blvd. and Washington.
Call Mort Friedlander to volunteer to place the flags on The Veterans Graves.
- 10/6/24 Annual Barbecue 11:00 AM at Desert Vista Park in Sun City Summerlin
