COMMANDER'S NOTES

During our last meeting, Jack brought a guest named Steve who talked about APPRECIATION DAY. Save the date, October 19th for this yearly event for veterans and first responders. Free entry veterans and family members. Everything is free including food and entertainment. Craig Ranch 10:30AM to 4PM.

Poppy Drive is coming up November 6th, 7th, 8th, 10th and 11th. Check with Jerry or Mort if you can sign up for a shift. This is our biggest money maker for the year and all members need to be on board to make it a success. It is not fair for the same members to cover all shifts required. The event will be at the Smiths Grocery Store on Sand Hill and Flamingo.

Do not forget that our annual raffle is the second greatest money maker for the Post. Get your tickets at the next meeting or we can send them to you if you have not already receive some tickets.

ENTERTAINMENT AT OUR SEPTEMBER 24TH POST MEETING: This is something special, after a short meeting one of the piano players for the "Rat Pack", Harry Heideman, will be entertaining us. He is piano playing, Rat Pack story telling entertainer. Bring family and friends for a free buffet. RSVP required Meeting starts at 10am. Our meeting room has limited space so get your RSVP in ASAP to Senior Vice Commander Jerry Bootzin 303-589-6314.

Lets recruit some new members

BULLETIN

Post member and patron hats are available to purchase. Use a soft measuring tape to measure around your head where the hat will sit. This is typically about 2 fingers above your eyebrows circling the widest part of your head.

If you would like to purchase one, contact Commander Jerry.
